Photo Sharing on the Internet – Differences Between Older and Younger People

This project was part of a MA dissertation about Digital Media and Society. It looked at the potentially different behaviours and motivation of younger and older people when they share photos on social media.