From The Chair

Welcome Back!

I hope you have all enjoyed the summer and as I write I know that many groups are gearing themselves up to restart their activities with a vengeance.

Since my last communication with you all, SU3A held a successful AGM with some lively entertainment provided by Singing for Pleasure and A Cappella groups. The YAHR Summer School proved to be a great success with 14 members from SU3A attending. Our very own Denise West was one of the key organisers of this event assisted by Jean Stevenson.

The Friday Lectures continue to grow and remain ever popular. I attended the July Lecture on “Peatlands Environmental Research” which had a very engaging and articulate lecturer. Thank you to Shelagh Woolliscroft and her fellow organisers, the lecture was truly an eye opener. If you have not been to any of the Friday Lectures, give it a go. You will receive a warm welcome. Details of forthcoming lectures can be found on page 29.

I’ve recently had occasion to reflect on how essential the self-help ethos is for the smooth operation and success of our groups and would like to remind our members that “learning through self-help” is the key principle of the U3A movement. Group coordinators give their own time not just to carry out group activities but also to organise them. So if you are asked to help occasionally with refreshments or perhaps with moving some chairs and you are physically able to do so, please help and support your group coordinator. Likewise, our volunteers who help with the administration and running of our U3A cannot always be at the end of the phone when a member has a query. Volunteers are giving up their own time to help the membership and if on occasions you are frustrated with the response you receive, please be patient and maybe think about how you could contribute to improve the way things work.

At the end of August, along with approximately 400 other delegates from around the country, I attended the U3A National Conference and AGM, where the new Regional Trustee for the Yorkshire and Humber Region, Sue Stokes, was appointed. There are now 1,011 U3As in the country bringing the membership to over 400,000. Many topics were discussed, but particular emphasis was on our charitable status as an educational movement, shared learning and research projects. More information will be forthcoming in the next issue of Links.

Looking forward to the coming months, I am pleased to say that the order for the audio “Whisper Boxes” for the Travel and Open Groups has been placed and delivery is expected mid/late September. A second New Members Meeting is scheduled for November, so members who have recently joined us look out for your invitations. Now I’ve been advised by the Links Editor that space is very short for this issue as there’s lots going on in “Group News” so I’m signing off!

Until next time... Samina

Flying Gardeners

The next session will be on 29 November at Whirlowbrook Park, starting at 10 am (our winter start time), finishing at 12 noon. We will be clearing the drive-side bed adjacent to the upper pond, ready for planting up in spring 2018.

Everyone is welcome, no tools are required, just stout shoes and gloves. Easy parking in the lower car park or behind the Hall.

Enquiries to Shelagh Woolliscroft on (0114) 255 8948.

ROOM 50

A meeting room, Room 50, is available in central Sheffield for use by U3A groups. Sheffield U3A has the sole use of the room which is conveniently located within Victoria Hall in Chapel Walk.

A dozen of our activity groups have used the room in the last year. These range from the Recorder group, Italian Language, Knitting and Crochet, World of the Book (a literature study group) to Act Your Age (a play reading group). There are plenty of free slots available and all group co-ordinators are encouraged to use the room.

Room 50 can accommodate up to 20 people, is light and airy and contains tea and coffee-making facilities. There is also a general coffee lounge located in Victoria Hall and lift access. Victoria Hall is easily reached using bus and tram routes and represents exceptional value at just £10 per session (morning or afternoon). The room is available from 9 am until 5 pm and can be hired on either a one-off or a regular basis.

If you think Room 50 might meet the needs of your group or wish to discuss whether it is suitable please call our Treasurer, Chris Jones on 07753 829771.

Booking Room 50

To book Room 50 please text Chris Jones with your group details and requested date/time on 07753 829771 or email him on treasurer@sheffieldu3a.org.uk. Chris will reply within 48 hours. In exceptional circumstances, if Chris does not reply, please email your request to Maggie Bower on links@sheffieldu3a.org.uk

Talking about our generation - growing up in the 1960s

Were you born between 1945 and 1955? Do you remember white boots, bouffant hair, scampi in a basket, EPs, Nights In White Satin and The House of the Rising Sun? Would you be interested in sharing YOUR experiences of the 'Swinging Sixties'?

We would like to start a living history project in 2018, based on sharing memories of all aspects of the 60s decade - home and school life, entertainment, holidays, music, fashion, health, sport, memories of world events, etc. Besides being an entertaining process we hope for two tangible outcomes - some published material and a 'Sixties Night' some time later in the year.

In order to succeed we need to set up a small steering group which would help to a) facilitate the 'memory sessions', b) contribute to the writing up and c) stage the Sixties Night. We will also need lots of other members to join in the 'trips down Memory Lane'.

If you are interested in being part of the steering group, please come to the Drop-In at 10.30 am on either 3 October or 7 November; or telephone Denise West on (0114) 274 6797 or Shelagh Woolliscroft on (0114) 255 8948.

GROUP NEWS

Walk 'n Talk German

It has been 3 years since we started the Walk 'n Talk German walking group. There are many walking groups within SU3A, but no others where you are obliged to speak in a foreign language while you are walking, in our case in German.

The members of our group have learnt the German language to a high conversational standard under various circumstances and have mostly one-to-one conversations with each other. The common aim is to maintain language skills and learn a bit more - good for the ageing brain!

What a relaxing way to do just that and have a lot of fun at the same time. Nearly all walks end in a nice pub or café, where we can continue socializing in English.

How about users of other languages setting up walking groups?

Art Group Tuesday

We are an existing group of artists who would like to welcome new members to join us weekly, on Tuesday afternoons from 2 - 4 pm at Ecclesall Parish Hall, Ringinglow Road, Sheffield, S11 7PP.

We are a self-help group painting in all media. We have no tutor but several members of the group are able to offer informal tuition if required. Our first meeting after the summer holidays will be on 12 September. The low cost of hiring the room is divided equally between members on a quarterly basis. For more information, please contact Graham Woodthorpe or Mike Tilly.

Personal Finance Group

Back in business after the summer holiday, we have arranged a very interesting programme for the year ahead. Essentially we are a participatory group but we occasionally invite experts to come to speak to us. For the new 2017/18 sessions, starting 18 September, among the topics to be discussed are: planning for health in older age, providing financially for the next generation, trusts, inheriting pensions and ISAs, and funeral arrangements. At each meeting we also have an “Open Forum” to introduce discussion on matters of current interest to our members. We meet on the 3rd Monday monthly at 2 pm at Shirley House, Psalter Lane, Sheffield, S11 8YL.

Please see our new programme on our homepage on the SU3A website. If this appeals, please contact the Coordinator:

Dressmaking Groups The Old Junior School, Sharrow Lane

We now have two Dressmaking Groups, held on alternate Monday mornings at The Old Junior School. The groups are for anyone interested in hand sewing or machine sewing. There is no teaching so some experience is necessary. We are friendly and help each other out by sharing our skills when needed.

There are a few vacancies which we are keen to fill. Do please get in touch with Ellie Johnson or Eve Fawcett for further details:

New Belleplates Group

I should like to start a U3A Belleplate group (similar to, but different from, handbells and lighter to handle). We would meet in our house in Crookes in a morning for about an hour. If you are interested, or would like to find out more, please contact me by email or telephone. Please let me know which morning of the week would suit you.

Tai Chi and Chi Kung – West Sheffield – Proposed new group

I am hoping to set up a new tai chi group for members wishing to learn tai chi and chi kung for health. Details of venue, times and costs are yet to be finalised but the sessions are likely to be held in either Banner Cross or Kenwood areas on either a Wednesday or Thursday, early or mid-afternoon. I am looking to start the weekly sessions from mid-November.

If you wish to know more and register your interest please email me, Ron Jarman, at ron.jarmanfamily.co.uk (preferred option) or telephone (0114) 230 6878.

New Current Affairs Discussion Group

There is now so much good non-fiction being published on current affairs topics such as Brexit, Immigration and the 'Post Truth' society that we, as enthusiasts for this kind of reading, have decided to start a Current Affairs Discussion group.

This will work in a similar way to most fiction book groups, where members recommend a book they have read for the group to read and then fix a time to lead discussion of that book. The introductory meeting of the group will be used to draw up a programme for the first few months of 2018. For that meeting, we will bring along information about some books that have interested us and will set the ball rolling by leading the first two sessions in the New Year. You are also warmly invited to come with suggestions of books on which you might like to lead a discussion. For reasons of expense, we are asking potential members to recommend paperbacks rather than hardbacks.

The introductory meeting will take place on Thursday 16 November in the Dore Moor Inn from 11.00 am. All subsequent meetings will take place in the same venue and at the same time on the second Thursday of each month, starting on Thursday 11 January 2018. We anticipate that discussion will last from between an hour and an hour and a half followed by the option of lunch. So everybody has the opportunity to contribute to and lead discussions, we are looking for a membership of up to 15. The book under discussion for the January 2018 meeting will be 'The Road to Somewhere' by David Goodhart, led by Paul Close. In this book, out in paperback on 28 September, Goodhart argues that two groups in Britain were revealed by the Brexit vote of June 2016, which he calls the 'Anywheres' and 'Somewheres' and considers what this means for the future of British politics.

Please contact us by Friday 27 October if you would like to join the group. We look forward to hearing from you.

Taster Sessions of Various Crafts – New in Chapeltown

I am opening a group in my home in Chapeltown, Sheffield for people interested in crafts. It will be on a Friday morning, once a fortnight, starting on 20 October. The session will start at 10.00 am and will continue as long as we like on the day, so you might want to bring a packed lunch. Other refreshments will be available too. There will be a small cost for materials of not more than £5. Initially, I thought we would do Crafts for Christmas covering the following techniques: parchment, cards, gift items, bunting, table decorations and gift bags and tags. If you are interested please contact me by email, telephone or message me on my mobile.

Lip-reading Classes

Are you hard of hearing? Chris Carter is hoping to set up a group to learn to lip-read, led by a professional teacher. The plan is to have two-hour sessions, in a City centre location. There would be a charge, which would comply with U3A rules. Time, date and venue are yet to be decided. If you are interested, or know anyone else who may be, please come to the Drop-In on Tuesday 3 October or contact Chris Carter by text on 07855 908007 or by e-mail U3AChrisCarter@gmail.com.

The group itself meets monthly and offers mutual support and information. We also aim to work with Sheffield venues to improve facilities for the hard-of-hearing and to share experience. New members are welcome.

The Sheffield U3A committee are interested in enabling the roughly 25% of its members with hearing problems to fully participate in activities. It is intended to purchase a portable loop system that can be lent to groups who have deaf members.

The charity “Action on Hearing” have suggested various ways in which hearing people can help. Suggestions include:

- If the person uses lip-reading, as most do, at least to some extent, you should look for an area with good lighting away from noise and distraction to have a conversation and make sure you have the person’s attention before speaking;
- You should speak normally and clearly, without raising your voice but using normal lip movements facial expression and gestures whilst keeping your face towards them;
- You should make sure that what you are saying is understood and if not try saying it in a different way and try to get to the point without waffling.

Learning Outdoors Walking Group

We meet every Thursday at 10am for a 6-7 mile walk. We are probably different from other U3A groups because we aim to learn about the landscape we are looking at, whether it is history, geology, birds, rivers or plants and trees. We devise the walks around a theme for each month. Past themes have included ancient route ways, reservoirs, literary walks and many other subjects. We car share and have a refreshment stop at the end of our walk around 2.30-3pm. New members can expect to lead when they feel comfortable to do so.

Our July programme was based around village well dressings in Derbyshire. In August and September we are repeating those walks that were made less perfect previously because of poor weather. The new theme for October is to walk parts of the Peak District Boundary Walk, and in November the theme is based on famous women. For further details please contact:

Mindful Ageing Group – new group

We are two members of U3A who have been teaching mindfulness on a voluntary basis for the last 6 years. We run programmes on Mindfulness Based Life Enhancement and Mindful Ageing. We are asking whether there is anyone in U3A who would be interested in joining a group that would explore how we can enhance our lives as we age. We will introduce a variety of mindfulness practices including meditation, informal mindfulness, simple mindful movement (a blend of yoga and Qigong) and elements of positive psychology.

We would like to invite members to a two-hour taster session on Thursday 16 November at 2pm in the Multifaith Centre at Sheffield Hallam University City Campus where future meetings, starting in January, would be held. The aim will be to introduce the principles of mindful ageing in a practical way and to discuss how the group might be organised in terms of meeting frequency and content. Please do get in touch with us if you are interested or if you would like to know more about the proposed group.

Walking Group C - Dorset Holiday

A Thomas Hardy interest was added to a most enjoyable week spent in Dorset in June by Walking Group C. Organised superbly by Amanda and Barbara, with much of the countryside around Lulworth Cove covered in daily walks. Fantastic views of the coastline included: Studland Bay, Swanage, Poole Harbour, the Isle of Wight and of course, Old Harry Rocks and Durdle Door. We visited the cottages and graves of Hardy and T.E. Lawrence, the deserted village of Tyneham, and Moreton Church. Good company, great walks and many laughs were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Chris's Big Swim

On 19 June this year, Chris Hill, a member of Walking Group F, did something rather extraordinary. He swam the length of Windermere for charity. This ten-and-a-half mile swim raised over £800 for MacMillan Cancer Support. This is an exceptional feat of endurance which followed months of training and a lot of preparation. The swim started near Newby Bridge and, with the support of an escort boat, was successfully completed six and a half hours later at Ambleside.

Chris started his open water swimming in 2014 with the Great North Swim. He then repeated this for the following two years, swimming greater distances each time and raising over £1000 from these events. He was motivated to fundraise for MacMillan because they had looked after his father-in-law through a terminal cancer and provided exemplary support during this difficult time.

The Windermere swim left Chris totally exhausted on completion. He was both physically and mentally drained, and although a painful shoulder recovered fairly quickly, it took a little while for the emotions to settle down. Half a year's intensive training for six hours in the water and then suddenly it was all over.

Happily, Chris now looks back on the whole experience with satisfaction and feels that it was a life-affirming event.

Chris Hill is a shining example of what can be achieved with dedication and commitment. If you would like to see more of Chris's swim and fundraising, please visit the website: www.justgiving.com/chris-hill55

Wednesday Art Group

The Wednesday Art Group held a Summer Party on 21 June this year - six months after their customary Christmas party got squeezed out of the schedule. Member Kath Lawrence offered her garden, plus catering. But without crackers to pull and silly Christmas games and forfeits in mid June, we had to devise some original art-related fun. Paint something? Joint activity? Mural? "Well, we've got a blank garage wall" suggested Kath... "I could design something" suggested David (who also paints scenery for model railways when he's not leading the art group). Gordon found money in the Treasury for a load of "sample" pots of emulsion paint in landscape colours. And we were off...!

David took inspiration from a vintage GWR Poster painted by Sir Herbert Alker Tripp (1883-1954) showing Cader Idris with Afon Mawddach in the foreground. Nearly 20 members turned up with paint brushes, sketching materials, and sunhats to have a fantastic day and, incidentally, cover the wall. The pictures below tell some of the story. Remember Tom Sawyer and the fence? Now, I wonder why that springs to mind?

Video Documentary Trip to BBC Media City in Salford

Members of Sheffield U3A Video Documentary Group enjoyed a visit to the BBC at Media City in Salford, where we were taken on a tour of the production facilities and studios. We were excited to stand in the studio where BBC Breakfast is broadcast every morning. There was an opportunity to stand in for Carol Kirkwood, Louise Minchin and Charlie Stayt on the famous 'red sofa' which gave us an appreciation of the skills of these presenters.

The tour included the Blue Peter studio as it was being prepared for the next edition of the show. It was fascinating to see the amount of technology involved in this production which, of course, is never seen on the television screen. We were also taken into a very impressive complex of radio studios which are used by Six Music and others for live performances.

We would welcome new members to join our group which was formed to provide practical experience and training sessions in video production. This is not a course and we are happy for people with no previous skills in this area to join and learn alongside others with varying degrees of knowledge. Using these skills we undertake worthwhile documentary video productions for charities and other organisations who would otherwise be unable to afford a video.

We meet on Monday mornings between 10 and 12 at various locations around Sheffield. We learn, often through our mistakes, have fun and eat biscuits!

If you are interested in joining us contact:

Friday Lectures at the Showroom Cinema

All members are able to attend these lectures free of charge. Occasionally there is a retiring collection for the speaker's nominated charity.

Lectures are held in Cinema 4 at the Showroom Cinema, Paternoster Row, on the third Friday of the month and start at 11.00 am, finishing at around 12.30 pm. A voucher, obtainable from the box office, enables half-price parking at Q-park on Arundel Gate. There is a greeter wearing a U3A lanyard badge to welcome new members. The café opens at 10.00 am and refreshments are available before and after the lecture.

The team will endeavour to post last-minute changes on the website. There is no booking system - it is 'first come, first served'. Queries to Shelagh Woolliscroft: (0114) 255 8948

20 October - The work of Sheffield Advanced Technology Park. Keith Ridgway CBE, Professor of Design and Manufacture, University of Sheffield.

Professor Keith Ridgway is the Chair of the Advanced Manufacturing Research Centre (AMRC) in Sheffield where he is also Professor of Design and Manufacture. He was admitted to Honorary Fellowship of the Royal Aeronautical Society, the world's most prestigious and long-standing aerospace award honouring achievement. This is in recognition of an outstanding contribution to aerospace manufacturing, which has led to the development of innovative manufacturing processes and a step change in the productivity of many industrial companies.

The AMRC was established by Professor Ridgway in 2001, who worked with local businessman Adrian Allen to develop a multi-million pound collaboration between the University and aerospace giant Boeing. The AMRC grew out of our longstanding strengths in metallurgy and engineering research, working in close partnership with the aerospace supply chain.

17 November - Shale gas fracking: the politics and science. Sarah O'Hara, Pro-Vice-Chancellor for Education and Student Experience and Professor of Geography, University of Nottingham.

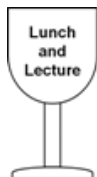

Over her career Sarah has acted as an advisor to the UNDP, SDC, FCO as well as the UK and EU government on a number of water-related projects and environmental issues. She currently sits on the British Geological Society (BGS) Independent Advisory Committee and is an adviser to the Shale Gas Task Force.

15 December - Humour in Film Martin Carter, Principal Lecturer in Film Studies, Sheffield Hallam University.

What makes people laugh? If we knew that then every comedy film, play, television show would have us all rolling in the aisles... but they do not. This meandering ramble through the history of screen comedy will also not provide an answer to that question but will hopefully illustrate the wide range of what some of us do find funny... and others don't.

Martin works in the Stage & Screen team teaching Film Studies. He has specific interests in Documentary, British Cinema and Cinema Architecture. He regularly introduces films at the Showroom's Early Doors screenings which has often given him an object lesson in the fact that not everyone will find your funny lines funny.

Weekenders' Quiz Night Saturday 9 December 2017

It's back! The now annual quiz, with pie and pea supper (and vegetarian) - three times voted "the best pie and peas at a quiz in Sheffield", will be held on Saturday 9 December at 19.30 in Holy Trinity Church Hall, Grove Road, Millhouses (good bus links and easy parking). The cost is £13 per person (held for the third year running).

Included also are guided visits to Mdina, the ancient capital city of Malta, Rabat to see the famous Catacombs of St Paul and the Church of St Mary in Mosta which is renowned for its dome, the third largest in Europe. We will finish our trip with a visit to the National Museum of Fine Arts in Valetta, home to a fine collection of paintings including works by Guido Reni, Jusepe Ribera and William Turner.

The cost of the above trip will be approximately £966 pp with a single supplement of £119 pp and includes accommodation on a half board basis in a 4* hotel at Qawra which is located 100 metres from the beach. Travel Group Short Break to Kent 3 – 7 June 2018

Kent, the “Garden of England”, is the destination for our Spring Break next year. We shall be staying at the Holiday Inn, Maidstone Sevenoaks. All rooms are en suite. There is also a fitness centre with swimming pool. From here we have easy access to explore the surrounding area.

On our way south, we will break our journey by visiting Hatfield House in Hertfordshire. This Jacobean House is home to the 7th Marquess of Salisbury and the Cecil Family. Within the gardens stands the surviving wing of the royal palace of Hatfield where Elizabeth I spent much of her childhood.

Over the next few days we will visit Igham Mote (NT), a perfectly preserved medieval Manor house, and Knole (NT), the flagship property of the National Trust. It was built as an archbishop's palace, later passed through royal hands into the Sackville family, who still live here 400 years on. We will also follow the Tudor trail at Penshurst Place and Garden and nearby Hever Castle, the childhood home of Anne Boleyn.

Also on the programme is a short visit to Maidstone and a Winery, where we can sample some of their award-winning products. Garden Lovers will appreciate a visit to Sissinghurst Castle Garden (NT), created by Harold Nicolson and Vita Sackville-West.

On the last day we plan to visit St Albans, the first major town on the old Roman Road of Watling Street for travellers heading north, before returning home to Sheffield.

The cost for this 4-night/5-day break is £350 per person, with a single supplement of £60. The cost covers bed, breakfast and evening meal at the hotel, transport throughout by Walter Martin, all gratuities and admission fees, except those of the 3 National Trust properties (approx. £35). Lunches, snacks and any other refreshments are not included.

To reserve a place, please complete the booking form below and send it with a deposit of £50 per person to Barbara Robertshaw as soon as possible. Please note that members are responsible for arranging their own personal travel insurance. Sheffield U3A cannot be responsible for any claims.

Travel Group Visit to Chester Tuesday 12 December 2017

We invite you to join us for an early Christmas celebration in Chester. The city is compact, with lots to see and enjoy, starting with the 1000-year-old Cathedral and its mediaeval carvings. We have included an easy guided walking tour of the City Centre. A unique feature is the City Wall, which surrounds the city and dates back to Roman times. Weather permitting, we recommend a stroll around the top – or just along a short section – for a bird's eye view of the city and countryside. Many of the streets are traffic-free. Admire the splendid Eastgate Clock, erected to celebrate Queen Victoria's Jubilee in 1897.

Shoppers will enjoy the unique "Rows" Galleries, with retail stores at ground level and a second tier of shops above. The city is especially attractive in December with lights, brightly decorated shops and street displays.

Also celebrating the city's past are two excellent museums – the Grosvenor museum, recording 2000 years of unbroken civic history and the Military Museum, which celebrates 300 years of service to the nation. Do not miss the festive open-air Christmas market. Finally, you may wish to complete the day in style at one of the many restaurants or cafés. A happy Christmas to everyone.

The inclusive cost for the day (coach travel, guided city tour and gratuities) is £16.00 per person. To reserve a place, please complete the application form on page 42 and send it, with a cheque and a small sae to Derek Shipley as soon as possible.
